

Online webinar series organized for students of B.B.A. and B.C.A. in RSMT

Dr. D. B. Singh, Director RSMT and Chairman Prof. N. K. Singh addressed the students. A workshop on time management was organized on second day in the webinar series. In this workshop, National Trainer JCI India, Mrs. Shalini Barman expressed her views. She told the students on the metrics of urgent, very urgent and important, unimportant, to focus on the tasks that would help them manage time properly.

On the third day of the program, there was a thoughtful exchange of old students with current students of the institute. In the program, mainly archaic students Amber Sahu, Shivani Shah, Divya Singh, Nitin Singh, Shashank Mishra, Piyush Kumar etc. spoke on time management, dedication to the goal, continuous practice, faith in the values of Rajarshi etc. .

On the fourth day of the program, Mr. Rajiv Dwivedi told the students on mantra of success. He emphasized on the proper approach to the goal and management of tasks within specific time.

On the fifth day of the program, the corporate trainer Smt. Deepika Keshari told students about various aspects of innovation in a workshop on Innovation Case Jointly. He said that the companies have to make changes in the products to remain in the market. This change is possible only through joint innovation.

On the sixth day of the program, corporate trainer Mr. Ankit Kumar, while discussing online behavior, said that a dramatic increase in online working has been recorded due to Corona virus. Mr. Ankit Kumar told the students on various techniques of online etiquettes.

A workshop on entrepreneurship was organized on the seventh day of the program. Scrapshala founder Ms. Shikha Shah said that identifying opportunities is the first and important stage of entrepreneurship. She said that value addition can be done in waste goods also.

Director of Ravi Fans, Mrs. Balpreet Kaur said that being an entrepreneur is a big decision. It does not happen for everyone. For this, having passion is very important. Mrs. Balpreet Kaur discussed in detail the various challenges coming in the way of entrepreneurship.

In the closing address on the concluding day of the program, Director Dr. D.B. Singh said that amidst the challenges posed in the context of the pandemic, the institute has taken a lot of steps to protect the interests of the students so that there is no disruption in the study. He tried to solve the students' queries in a question-answer session.

BCA coordinator Dr. C.P. Singh gave a brief description of the program. The vote of thanks was given by Dr. Preeti Singh. The program was conducted by Dr. Nitu Ranjan Aggarwal. Other members of the organizing committee Mr. Sujeet Singh, Mr. Anurag Singh, Dr. Brijesh Yadav, Mr. Ashutosh Srivastava were also present. All the teaching and nonteaching staff were also present.

